Ways to use Tissue Oil in Your Beauty Routine

- Helps nourish nails and cuticles: Spray tissue oil onto nails and cuticles and massage in, also helps rescue dry hands.
- Add a few drops to your bath as helps to replenish the skin's natural oils and helps moisturise skin.
- Helps as a scalp treatment, apply few drops onto the scalp and massage in.
- Add it to your body lotion, with regular application it hydrates the skin which means the skin is less likely to scar.
- Gently massage onto the body as the this tissue oil also helps with the skin's elasticity, leaving skin feeling supple and softer.
