SECTION 1: INTRODUCTION TO THE SALES AND MARKETING PLAN

Integral to the worldwide success of Amway, is its unique Sales and Marketing Plan. This Plan has withstood the test of time, in multiple currencies, cultures and climates around the globe. The Plan provides a simple and unique mechanism of achieving one's own goals while helping others achieve their own.

The AMWAY Sales and Marketing Plan offers you the flexibility that fits in with your lifestyle. We provide reward for effort by offering substantial bonuses, business seminars, commissions on product sales and a long-term, willable business opportunity to all ABOs.

"My business is really my business and my business can be anything I want it to be."

SECTION 2: HOW TO CALCULATE YOUR INCOME

The Amway Business Opportunity provides an opportunity to expand your business as far as you wish.

Note: If a term is used that is unfamiliar to you, please consult Section 2 of Rules of Conduct in this Business Handbook.

Income from Product Sales

Firstly, you receive profit from your sale of Amway products to clients. The difference between your purchase cost and the retail price is your retail margin. If you follow Amway's suggested retail price, your retail margin will average 30% of your purchase price before VAT. The suggested retail margin may be higher or lower on individual Amway products.

Performance Commission based on Product Purchases

Secondly, you can receive a Performance Commission based on a monthly accumulation of points. All Amway Products are assigned two numbers: Point Value (PV) and Business Volume (BV). Point Value is a numerical quantity assigned to each product. Business Volume is a monetary amount assigned to each product. A product's BV may change due to periodic price adjustments.

The total Point Value (PV) of all the Amway products you and your Downline (whose Personal Volume is considered in calculating your Group Volume) purchase from Amway to support your independent business during a particular month, determines your Performance Commission Percentage for that month. This percentage multiplied by the total BV of all such products will be your gross Performance Commission Percentage for that month.

Performance Commissions earned by ABOs within your Downline (whose Personal Volume is considered in calculating your Group Volume) are deducted from your gross Performance Commission and are paid by Amway directly to your sponsored Amway Business Owners (ABOs). Your Performance Commission earnings are paid directly to you.

How income is generated under the Amway Sales and Marketing Plan

You can earn income through:

- Retail Margin attached to all products sold;
- Performance Commission, based on the total volume of products sold to clients through your business;
- Leadership Commissions (as described later) paid to you for successfully assisting others within your eligible Downline to achieve the 21% Performance Commission level; and
- Higher Award Commissions, including annual commissions, one-time cash awards and discretionary commissions for retail and sponsoring performance at established levels.

Important

All of the examples provided in this section are intended to illustrate how to calculate Performance Commission and combine it with income from gross retail margins under the Amway Sales and Marketing Plan. They are not intended to suggest an average achievement under the Plan. The examples are based on assumptions that may or may not apply to your circumstances. Actual results will depend on a number of factors and will vary from person to person. For example, net income will be determined after subtracting any applicable taxes and costs of overhead, including business expenses, that you may have. Your net profit may differ greatly from the examples below and will depend on many factors, including how efficiently you are able to conduct your business activities. Further details of how commissions are calculated can be found in this section or by contacting Amway directly.

How Income is Earned

Your Amway Business income is based on a monthly accumulation of points. All Amway products are assigned four sets of numbers: ABO Price (which is the price ABOs pay for the Amway products), Suggested Retail Price (which is the amount Amway suggests that clients pay for the same Amway Products purchased by the ABO), Point Value or 'PV' and Business Volume or 'BV'.

If your monthly Point Value is:	The Performance Commission generated is:
200 PV	3% of total BV
600 PV	6% of total BV
1 200 PV	9% of total BV
2 400 PV	12% of total BV
4 000 PV	15% of total BV
7 000 PV	18% of total BV
10 000 PV	21% of total BV

The Performance Commission Schedule

Your Performance Commission Percentage for each month is determined by the total PV of Amway products that you order during that particular month. Your Performance Commission is then calculated by multiplying the appropriate Performance Commission Percentage by your BV for the month.

Performance Fee is not only based on your own PV/BV Volume, but also on the sales of products attributed to your Downline ABOs.

The following examples show how the Amway Sales and Marketing Plan functions. These are examples only. They are not intended to serve as any guarantee of income by Amway. Rather, they show the methodology used in calculating Performance Commissions in the Amway Sales and Marketing Plan.

The Performance Commission achieved by ABOs within your eligible Downline will be paid by Amway directly to them; the remaining difference in your group's total Performance Commission will be paid by Amway directly to you.

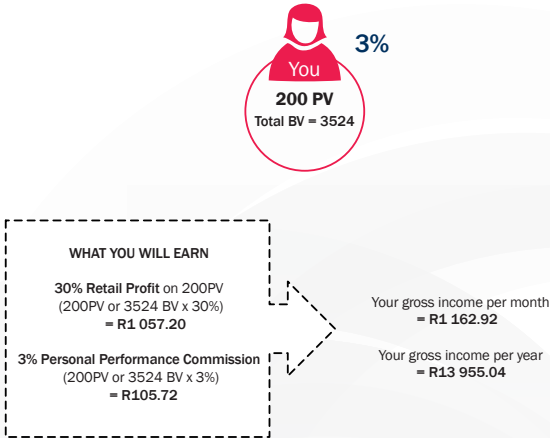

PLEASE NOTE: For ALL EXAMPLES the ratio between PV and BV in SA to be 1PV = 17.62 BV and the Retail Margin as 30% of the ABO Price before VAT.

Your Retail Margin may be higher or lower on individual Amway Products, depending on the retail price at which you sell such product. The Retail Margin is calculated before payment of VAT. The most up-to-date data regarding Suggested Retail Prices for all Amway Products can be found in the current Product Brochure.

PERSONAL PERFORMANCE COMMISSION AND RETAIL COMMISSION

EXAMPLE 1

Assuming that your monthly retail sales are equal to 200 PV*, your immediate gross income would accumulate as follows:

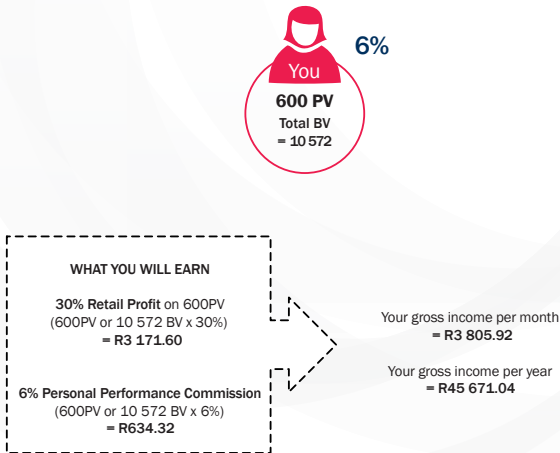

* Not everyone will have 200 points per month. Some ABOs will have more and some less. This figure is used to demonstrate the Amway Business Opportunity, not as a guarantee of income.

 The Retail Margin varies with each product.

EXAMPLE 2

Assuming that your monthly retail sales increased to 600 PV, your total monthly BV would be 10 572 BV. So, your immediate gross income would rise accordingly:

Already your part-time Amway Business is beginning to offer a meaningful income, but there are ways to expand this even further.

DIFFERENTIAL COMMISSION

Differential Commission is earned based on calculating the difference in percentage levels reached between you and your frontline.

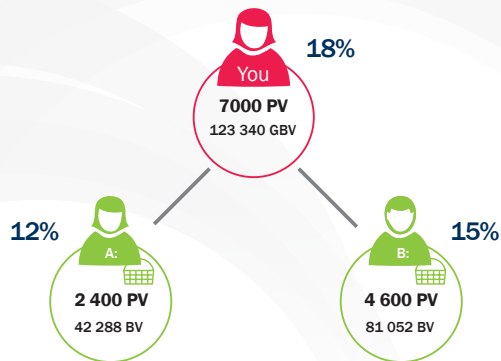

If you are at a higher percentage level than your frontline, you will earn this percentage difference between you and each of your frontline who is at a lower percentage level than you in that month.

Differential Commission can only be earned by an ABO who achieves a higher percentage level than that of their frontline in the same month.

Your income from Differential Commission ONLY would be as follows:

GPV Group Point Volume or Group PV

GBV Group Business Volume or Group BV

WHAT YOU WILL EARN

Differential Commission is calculated as follows

$$\begin{aligned} 18\% - 12\% &= 6\% \text{ (You - A)} \\ 6\% \times 2\,400 \text{ PV or } 42\,288 \text{ BV} \\ &= \text{R}2\,537.28 \end{aligned}$$

$$\begin{aligned} 18\% - 15\% &= 3\% \text{ (You - B)} \\ 3\% \times 4\,600 \text{ PV or } 81\,052 \text{ BV} \\ &= \text{R}2\,431.56 \end{aligned}$$

Your gross income in this month from Differential Commission ONLY:

GROWTH THROUGH DOWNLINE SALES

EXAMPLE 3

Let's now assume that you sponsor six other ABOs*, each of whom generates 200 PV in a month, while you, at the same time; personally retail 200 PV a month.

Your gross income would be as follows:

- * Not every ABO will sponsor other ABOs. Some will sponsor more and some less, depending on the time and effort expended on building the business.

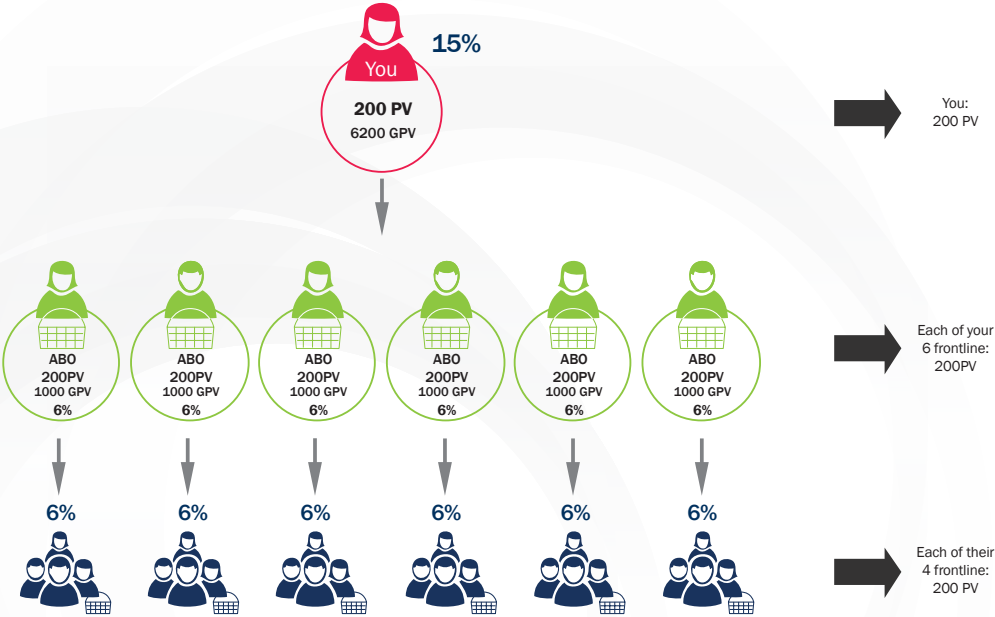

GROWTH THROUGH REPLICATION OF YOUR SUCCESS

Your business grows as those that you have trained and motivated follow your example.

EXAMPLE 4

Let's now assume that your six Frontline ABOs each sponsor four other ABOs; each of whom achieve 200 PV in the same month; while you at the same time personally retail 200 PV a month.

Your total Group Volume would be 6 200 PV and your gross income would be as follows:

WHAT YOUR GROUP LOOKS LIKE

Your total monthly group PV
= 6 200

Your total monthly group BV
= 109 244

15% Personal Performance Commission

= R9 514.80

Your gross income per month
= R11 100.60

Your gross income per year
= R133 207.20

EXAMPLE 5

If the four new ABOs in your group in turn each sponsor two new ABOs and everyone generates 200 PV per month, including yourself, the total for your Group Volume would be 15 800 PV.

Your gross income would be as follows:

WHAT YOUR GROUP LOOKS LIKE

Your total monthly group PV
= 15 800

Your total monthly BV
= 278 396

SECTION 3: RECOGNITION AND REWARDS

Recognition of ABO achievement is crucial in the Amway Business. This is carried out through Awards and Rewards. Award is to be understood as all recognition elements such as Pin, www.amway.co.za, and participation in incentive trips.

To be recognised as a high achiever is a valid and understandable desire. As you begin to build a business of your own, Amway will acknowledge the commitment you make by rewarding you for outstanding effort.

Amway is proud of its network of successful ABOs and has developed a wide range of recognition awards. Additionally, as you achieve new levels of recognition, your income will also increase.

ABOs who are climbing the first steps of the ladder of Amway success and who comply with the criteria within the Amway Rules of Conduct are eligible to receive the following awards for both sponsoring and retailing.
